

Caldas da Rainha - Hospital Termal

O fim de um passado, abertura para o futuro?

no séc. XV

O tempo começou a contar

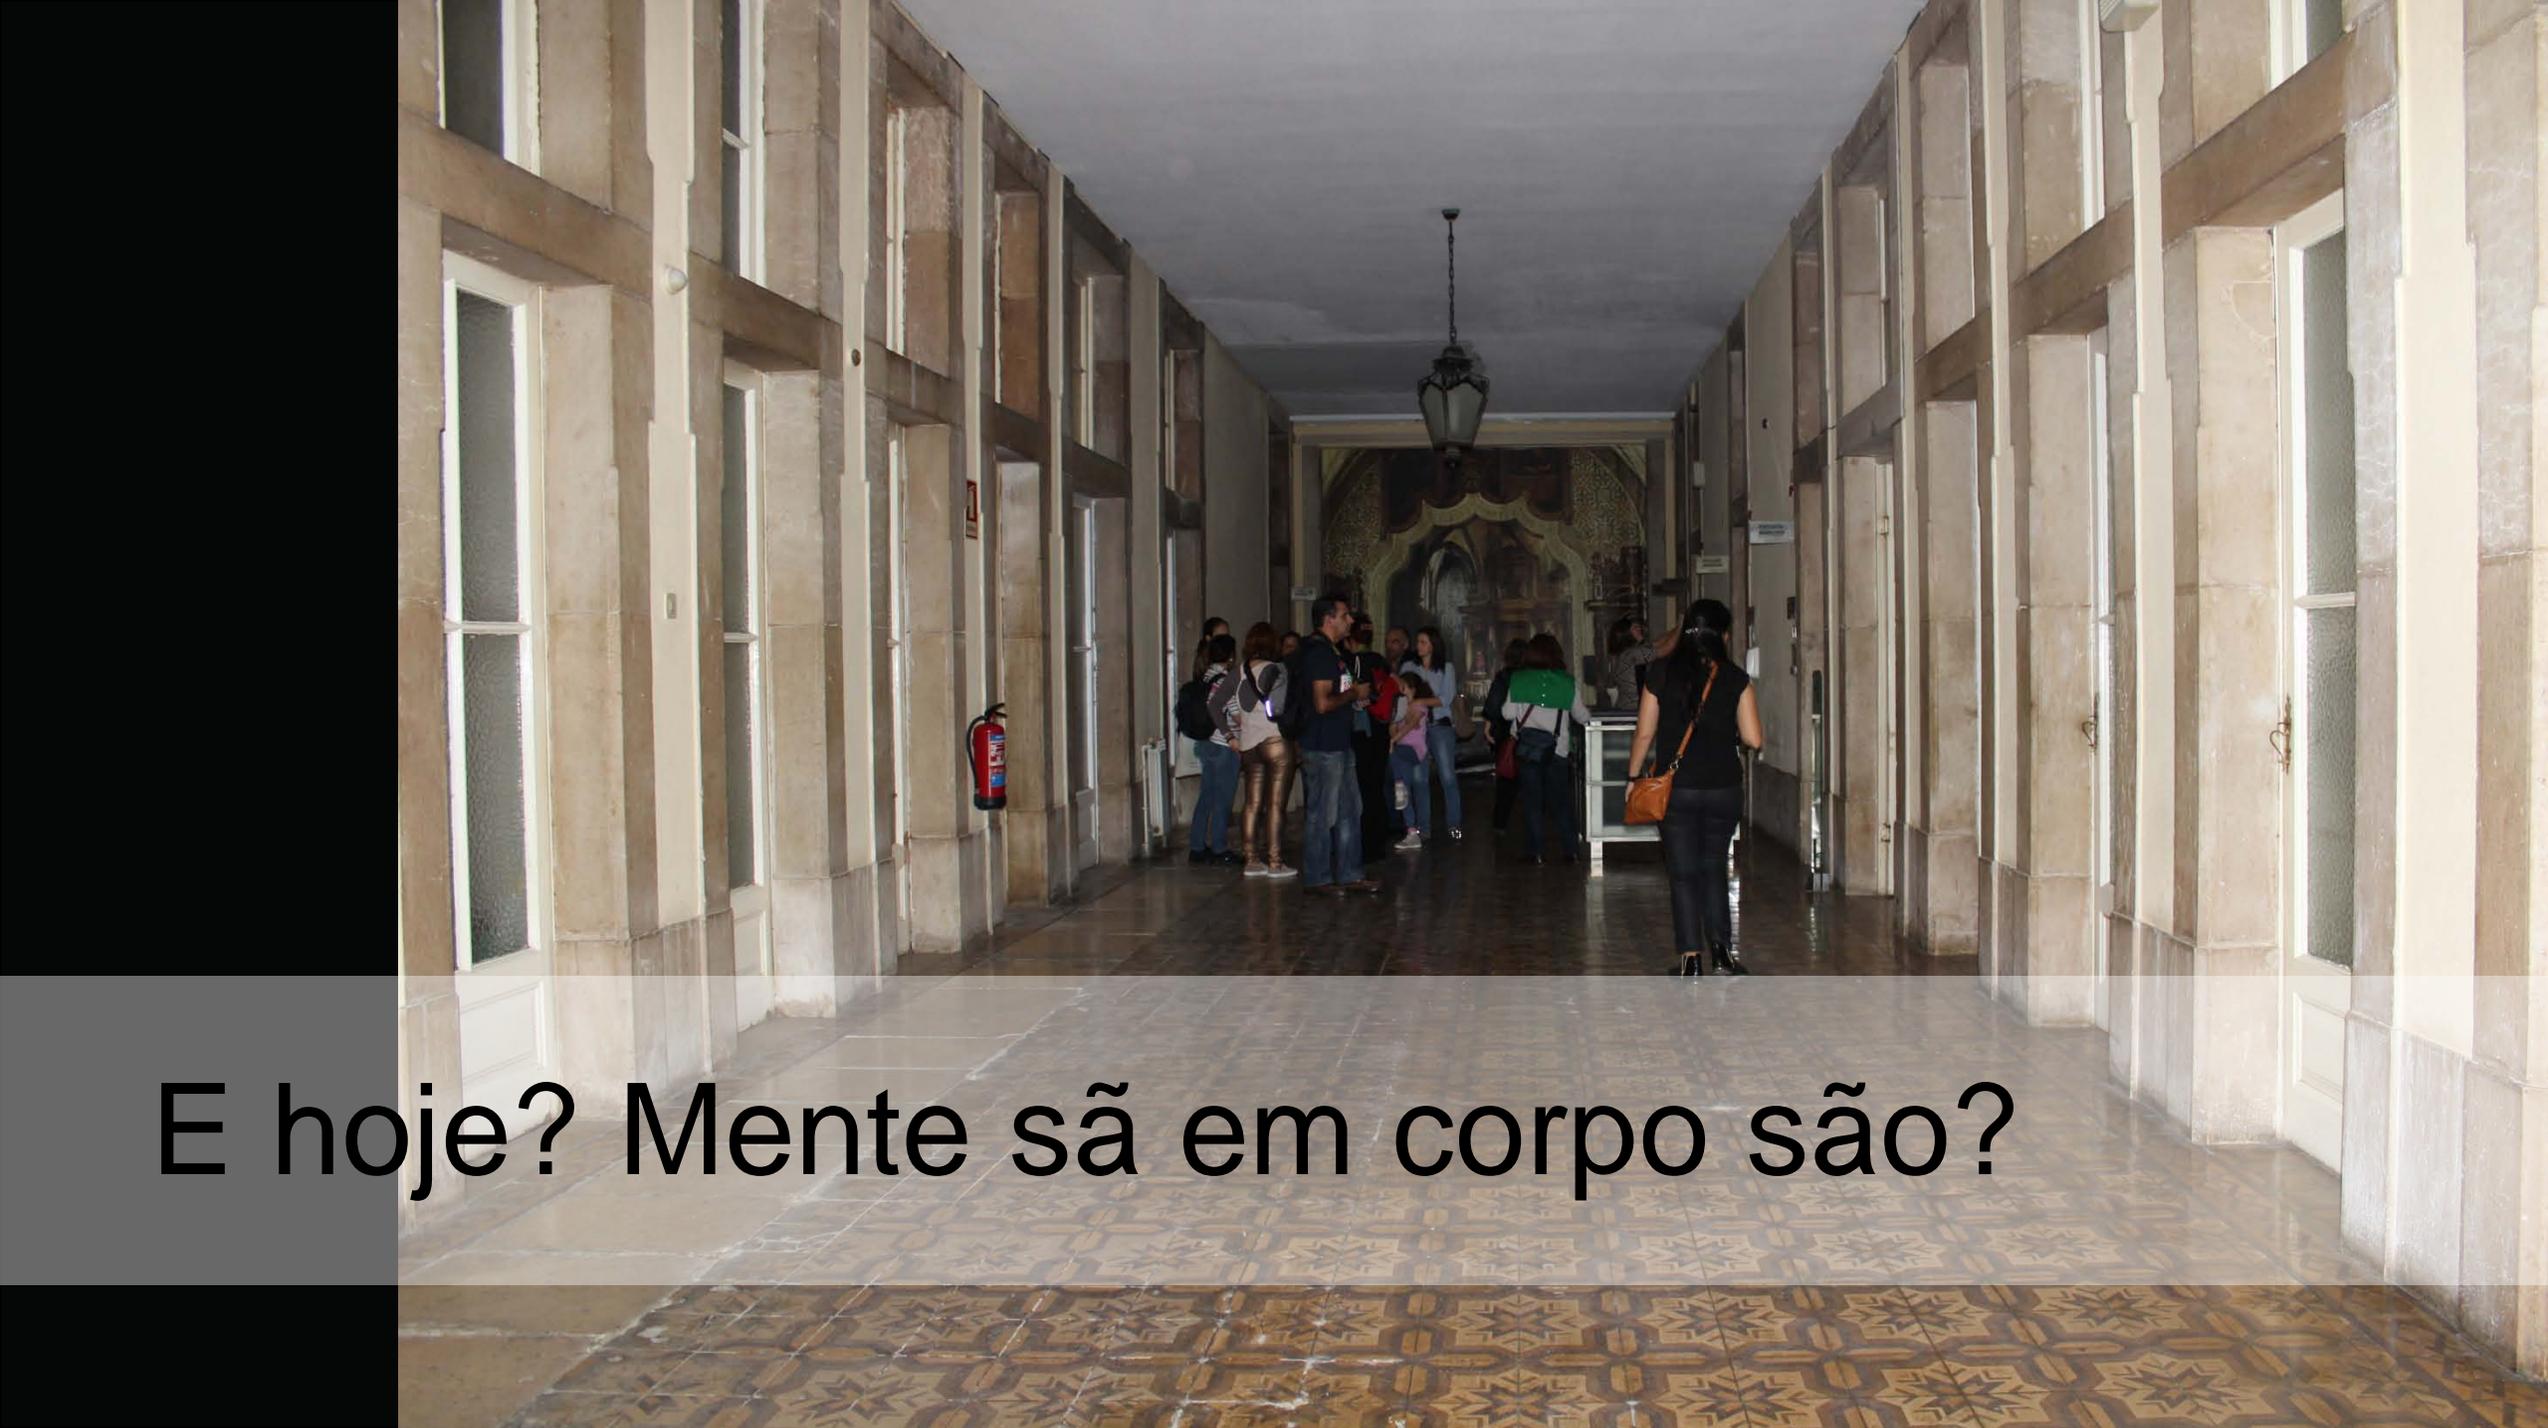

De novo no foco das atenções

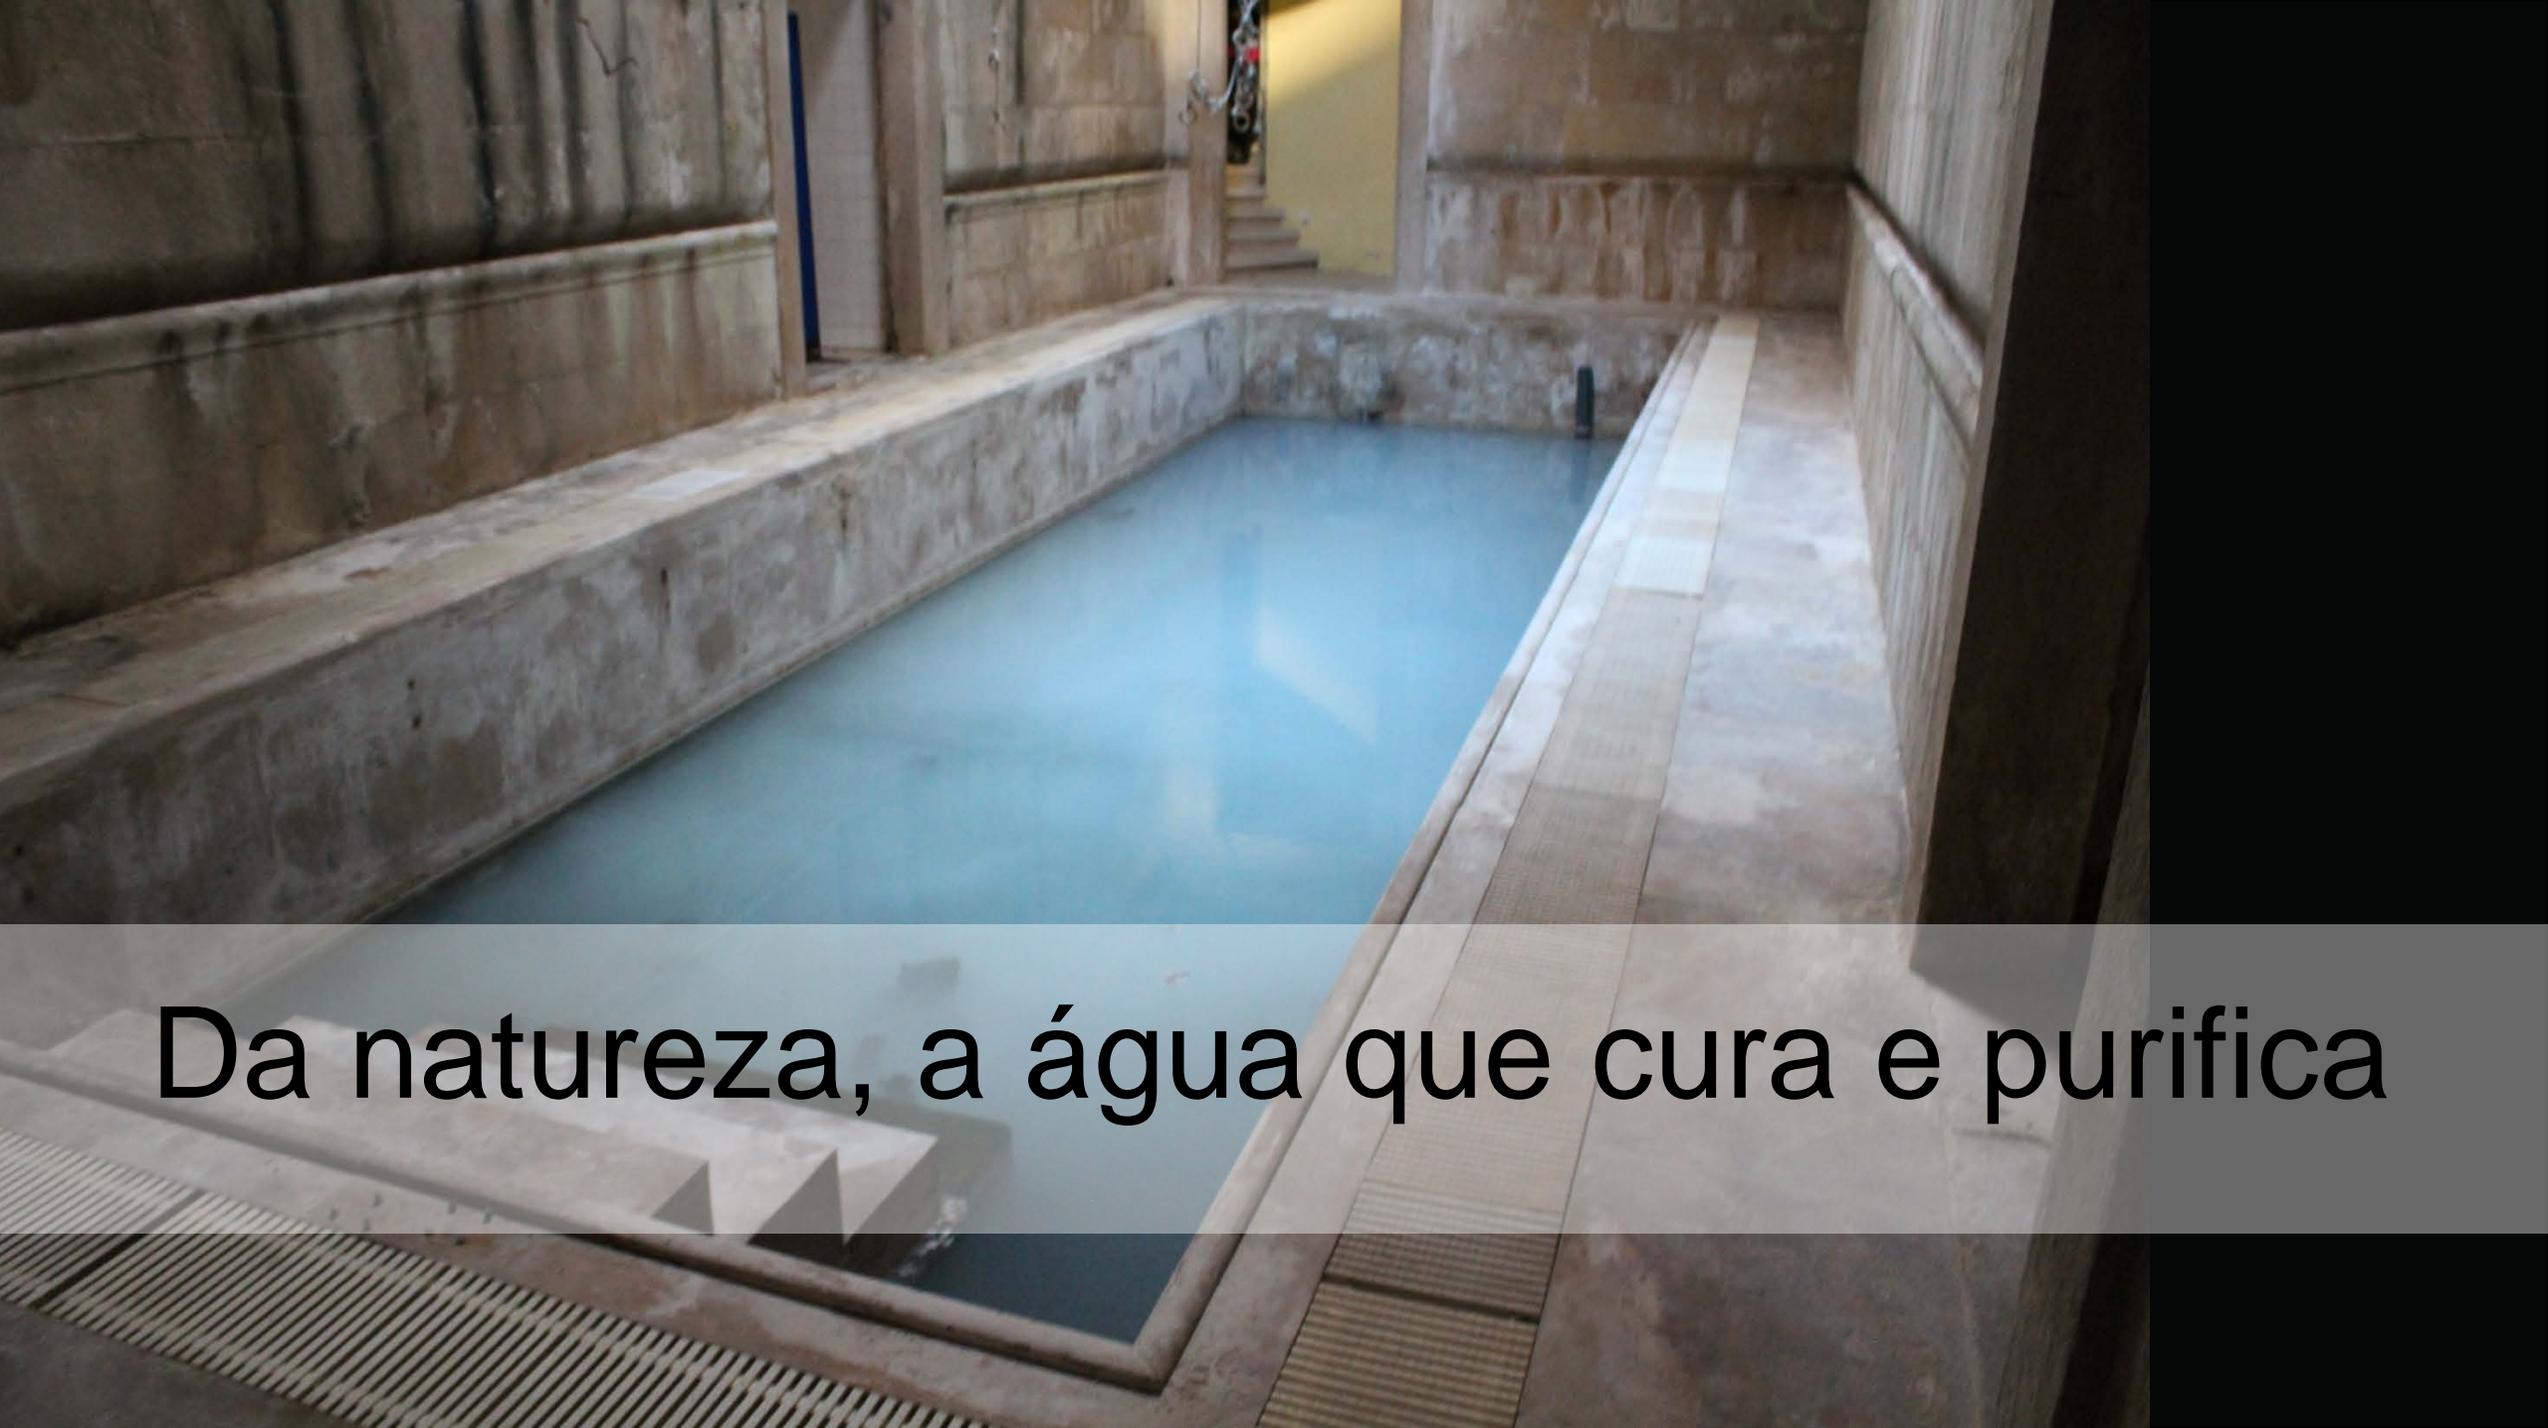

perfeição

Restaurar a glória e a

De um passado esplendoroso, a um futuro de progresso

E hoje? Mente sã em corpo são?

A photograph of a rectangular stone-lined pool filled with clear, light blue water. The pool is set within a rustic, stone-walled structure. The water is calm and reflects the surrounding environment. The stone walls are made of large, irregular blocks, and the pool's edges are finished with a smoother stone or concrete. In the background, a doorway with a yellow wall and a set of stairs is visible. The overall atmosphere is serene and natural.
